

Brendan Lewis (he/him/his)

Candidate for A&S President

Major: Political Science, Psychology

Year in School: Sophomore

"I would like more of a constituent voice within Arts & Sciences and SGA to fully achieve the goals the university has of accepting and helping their students, especially minority ones, achieve their full potential and succeed. Change and progress needs to be made."

Grace Jenny (she/her/hers)

Candidate for A&S Senator

Major: Political Science, Communications

Year in School: Sophomore

“‘Saving GRACE of Louisville’. As a student-athlete I have a strong voice to advocate for our student body. If elected, I will continue to fight for justice, transparency, and equality. I care about your interests and your voice. Vote for me and I will be a champion for you.”

Liam Gallagher (he/him/his)

Candidate for A&S Senator

Major: Political Science

Year in School: Freshman

*"It's time to make our campus safe,
our administration accountable, and SGA transparent."*

Alexander Reynolds (he/him/his)

Candidate for A&S Senator

Major: Political Science

Year in School: Freshman

"As a Student Senator, I plan on...

1. Fighting for a better virtual learning environment and student privacy, as many students struggle with the stress of online class.
2. Working to invest more in student emergency funds and other scholarships.
3. Promoting greater government transparency and opportunities for student input."

Kaylee Boyd (she/her/hers)

Candidate for A&S Senator

Major: Chemistry, Biochemistry track

Year in School: Freshman

“The major points of my campaign involve working to provide positive educational and living experiences for UofL’s minority students. I will work to provide better safe spaces for POC students and more educational resources to students from underprivileged communities. Also to reduce any micro-aggressions commonly committed against these students.”

Meg Powers (she/her/hers)

Candidate for A&S Senator

Major: Psychology

Year in School: Junior

"I am running for College of Arts & Sciences Senator because I want to advocate for my peers. I want to help enact change at the University of Louisville so it can better serve current and future students. I would love the opportunity to give back to A&S and UofL which has given me so much by focusing on our community's environmental impact, centering student voices, and celebrating intersectionality."

Loghan Currin (she/her/hers)

Candidate for A&S Senator

Major: Individualized Major

Year in School: Freshman

“Hey Cards! If elected I will support education equity, I will promote improved programs for non-traditional students, will listen to your voices to resolve issues on campus, and will make this campus an inclusive and welcoming place! Education is important and it’s why we’re here! Your education, your voice!”

Aditya Mehta (he/him/his)

Candidate for A&S Senator

Major: Biology, Spanish

Year in School: Sophomore

"My top ideas are centered around accountability and sustainability initiatives. I plan to create efforts that connect UofL administration and the incoming student body to address valid concerns. I will also assist students in finding accessible resources to combat and raise awareness about food apartheid (e.g., the Cardinal Cupboard)."

Ruby Young (she/her/hers)

Candidate for A&S Senator

Major: Psychology

Year in School: Sophomore

"I want to give back to the school and student body I learned so much from. I think that during the COVID-19 pandemic, it has become increasingly difficult to focus on ourselves and our environment. I will reinstate those values of sustainability and mental and physical health in everyday life."

Zain Baig (he/him/his)

Candidate for A&S Senator

Major: Neuroscience

Year in School: Sophomore

"I would like to invest more efforts into campus unity projects that are COVID safe and I would like to hear the word of the people and get the student body's opinion on how they can have a better experience at UofL."

Julia Mattingly (she/her/hers)

Candidate for A&S Senator

Major: Biology

Year in School: Sophomore

- “Increasing university enforcement of mandatory Covid testing
- Ensuring the university upholds its promise to be a premier antiracist university
- Promoting sustainability on campus, whether it be through composting, use of community garden, recycling, biking instead of driving
- Ensuring all students have access to Covid vaccine in the Fall”
